

The Summit County Sheriff's Office Training Bureau is a component of the Operations Division and reports directly to the Chief of Operations.

Mission Statement-The Summit County Sheriff's Office Training Bureau is dedicated to providing progressive, innovative, state of the art training and educational information to all personnel of the Summit County Sheriff's office, other Law enforcement and safety forces as well as additional training that benefits the citizen's of Summit County. The Training Bureau will facilitate the highest level of professionalism and enhanced field performance by utilizing the latest research and instructional methods to develop and present outstanding training programs and professional practices. The Training Bureau will continue to upgrade course content by incorporating the latest research and recommended professional practices as well as stimulating inquiry and providing fresh perspectives on the law enforcement profession in order to provide training for our troops to complete assigned tasks in an effective, safe and efficient manner.

The Training Bureau's will continue to foster exemplary communications and cooperation within a broad spectrum of law enforcement, fire safety, criminal justice as well as other community groups and to forge strong working relationships and collaborative initiatives that will, benefit the citizens of Summit County.

Overview:

The Summit County Sheriff's Office Training Bureau is located on an 8 acre leased tract of land in the City of Green on Akron-Canton Airport Property. This state of the art training facility operates year round, offering a variety of basic, intermediate and advanced law enforcement programs which includes but not limited to The Basic Peace Officer Academy, Basic Corrections Academy, in-service advanced training, precision firearms skills enhancement training, K-9 training, tactical & SWAT training, defensive driving courses, and specialized courses and curriculum for local, state and federal agencies. Additional programming of instruction is offered to the Citizen's of Summit County on a vast away of topics for all age groups that includes but is not limited to a Citizen's Academy, Refuse to Be a Victim classes, First Aid/ CPR and, Teen Driving classes just to name a few. The training center also incorporates the Bomb detonation area as well as the impound lot that serves the Summit County Sheriff's office. Presently the Sheriff's Training Center also assists with supporting the City Of Akron's Police Department's, The Federal Air Marshal's, Ohio Peace Officer's Commission, State Parole and Probation and Federal Probation and many other federal, county and local law enforcement firearms programs.

Staffing: Staffing-The Training bureau is currently staffed by one Captain,, one Lieutenant , 2 full time training deputies, and one administrative assistant.. The Training Bureau also utilizes Instructors from other Divisions within the Sheriff's office, Instructors from other Law enforcement and safety forces agencies, local Universities, other county employees, community members as well as a host of other specialized instructors based on the programming and curriculum identified to teach.

The Training Bureau strives to provide the highest quality of training to personnel of the Summit County Sheriff's office, other governmental agencies and to the public.

{loadposition myposition}